

QNL Special Interest Event

‘Unlocking Pathways’: Navigating legal challenges to discharge planning. Collaborative Strategies for Inpatient and Community Learning Disability Teams

Monday 8 July, 9.30 - 12.05 via Zoom

Programme

09.30	Welcome and Introductions Dr Kiran Purandare, QNL Advisory Group Chair &amp; Consultant Psychiatrist, Central &amp; North-West London NHS Foundation Trust
09.35	Collaborative Strategies for clinically led, operationally enabled teams, using a service delivery framework within inpatient Learning Disability services Amy Shaw, Consultant Nurse, Richard Harrop, Matron &amp; Rachelle Flanagan, Ward Manager, Lancashire and South Cumbria NHS Foundation Trust
10.05	Navigating legal challenges to MHA 1983 discharge planning Neil Allen, Barrister, Senior Lecturer and Founder, 39 Essex Chambers, University of Manchester, LPS Law Ltd
10.35	Break
10.50	The Inpatient Journey Through Research Dr Ceri Woodrow, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Cheshire and Wirral Partnership NHS Foundation Trust
11.20	Burdette Nursing Discharge Tool Professor Eddie Chaplin, London South Bank University
11.50	Networking An opportunity for attendees to discuss in smaller groups
12.05	Closing remarks &amp; close

To sign up to attend the event please fill in the booking form here